WAYNE-FINGER LAKES Board of Cooperative Educational Services

Created by the Intermediate School District Act of 1948, all 38 New York State Boards Of Cooperative

Educational Services (BOCES) provide assistance to rural school districts by utilizing combined resources and shared costs to provide valuable educational activities and support that would otherwise be uneconomical or inefficient for them to provide alone. Each BOCES has a specific service area which is called a "supervisory district." Our area is in the Wayne-Finger Lakes region, which is comprised of 25 school districts in Ontario, Seneca, Yates and Wayne counties.

Our BOCES works with the component districts to determine educational needs for students and staff. It also assists in determining business systems, maintenance and grounds, construction and purchasing needs. It then responds to those needs by providing services, facilities and personnel. As long as a service need exists for two or more districts, service is provided. When districts no longer desire certain services, those services are discontinued.
